All About Wheels: Meeting at Wheelworx 10/04/2013

It was a dark and windy night in Cape Town. All of a sudden, a crowd of beauties arose from the darkness and lit up the parking area under a bridge in Town...

We arrived at the venue, Wheel Worx in Sir Lowry Road, to a very warm reception by owner Zaki Hendricks. He was in the process of moving his shop to new premises, but kept the old one open for one extra week just for CARC. We started the evening off with some light snacks and drinks, then Wesley Squier welcomed us all and Zaki started the presentation.

He started off by mentioning the machines he uses, and then got into the very technical aspects of wheels and tyres like offset, PCD and sizes. He showed us what happens when a crack on a rim goes untreated, how buckled rims affect us and a few other interesting things.

All in all it was a good night thoroughly enjoyed by all those in attendance and envied by those who missed out. CARC was also invited to the opening of his new shop in May. We will definitely have a repeat next year!
